About Us

Moving Mentor® is a thriving business. Having moved hundreds of seniors and consulted with many young families who want to get organized or who need to move, the firm has expanded its services to meet the needs of facilities, organizations and professionals who work with seniors. Through its consulting services and products, through educational workshops and seminars to inform the public and encourage people to be proactive when it comes to making transitions, Moving Mentor has become a prime force for healthy change in the Northeast's outreach to seniors.
